

Editing Worksheet Annotated Bibliography n ames of Reviewers: (1) uh LuM (2) Allento Garcia

1: Is the title specific? Based on the title what do you think the topic is (there should be 2 variables)?

NO

No title

2. Are the CSE citations correct? If not, give examples. Check at least one of the citations with the citation

Many parts are incorrect.

3. Are credentials of the authors discussed in all three articles? Is there enough information given that you think the articles are reliable? Give an example.

More info needed.

4: Is it clear how each article is going to fit into the lit review? Are similarities between the articles given for each of the three articles? Are differences (or something found in only one of the articles) given? State a couple of examples.

difference need to be established.

Given the above question, can you think of ways the writer might organize the literature review? May want to identify the gaps in the studies.

6. Are there many grammar, spelling, or punctuation mistakes? Are sentences concise? Are they wordy? List a few examples and circle on the page.

Some grammar mistakes.